Fix Egg Profit at 7 Cents a Dozen

Food Controllers Announce Maximum Gain That Retailers May Make

The Federal Food Board here announced yesterday that retailers will be permitted a maximum profit on both torage and fresh eggs of seven cents a dozen on a "cash and carry" basis and eight cents on "credit and delivery"

Householders should not pay more than 68 cents a dozen for select candled fresh eggs this week and 54 and 55 cents for cold storage candled.

Six dealers, including two grocers two butchers and two bakers, were penalized by the Federal Food Board yesterday for violations of its regula-yesterday for violations of its regulations. The grocers, both found guilty of selling flour without substitutes, were Giuseppe Mendolia, of 109 Hamburg Avenue, who must display a sign attesting to his guilt, and Morris Fergerm, 131 Thirteenth Street, College Point, L. I., who must close his shop for three days.

The butchers, Henry Newshafer, of 1488 Amsterdam Avenue, and Charles Shilling, of 723 Cortlandt Avenue, must contribute $25 and $50, respectively, to the Red Cross for profiteering in lamb. The licenses of two Brooklyn bakers, Luigi Bianco, 6306 Fourteenth Avenue, and Jacob Newman, 194 Floyd Street, were suspended for three days for using insufficient flour substitutes.

Policeman Is Convicted

Reserve Officer Accused of Attacking Civilian

Herman Kaplan, of 78 Orchard Street, member of the police reserves, was found guilty yesterday of attacking and beating George Waring, of 419 Ninth Avenue, Long Island City, on Saturday night, and was sent to jail for two days to await sentence.

Waring had had two teeth knocked out and also had severe cuts about his face when he appeared in court yesterday, accompanied by Kaplan in uniform. He told Magistrate Conway that he had words with Kaplan, who was not in uniform, and charged that his assailant had attacked him without declaring his identity.

"If you think that uniform you are wearing will influence me," said the magistrate to Kaplan, "I can tell you that you had much better have left it at home. I find you guilty of disorderly conduct."
